PERFECT - 27 Sep 2010

We had the perfect stay at B Hotel. Although the hotel is not situated in the centre of the city, a taxi ride will only cost 5-8 Euros. The hotel is well maintained, clean, trendy and has wonderful super friendly and helpful staff. Rooms are really nice, spacious and bright, especially the corner rooms. Comfortable beds for a noise free sleep. After a long day it's great to have a swim on top of the roof overseeing the Placa Espana. It's worth every euro and recommend it to anyone.

B-ecause it's worth it - 23 Sep 2010

Contemporary, minimalist hotel in a good location. The rooftop pool was a welcome bonus after a hard days' sightseeing; it's not big enough to swim lengths in, but just the tonic for a quick dip after a hard days' sightseeing, helped by a reasonably-priced bar too.

Location-wise, it's really good. Just off the Plaza Espanya and while a glance at a map might make you think it's far from the centre it's not. There's a metro station virtually outside, giving access to multiple lines (the ones you want for most of the sites). If you want to stretch your legs, it's about 30mins walk to La Rambla (it's a nice area, down a wide avenue). Plus there's a "biking" station virtually outside where public bicycles are for hire.

I will go there next time too - 21 Sep 2010

I can recommend this hotel. You can get to the hotel from the airport (do not need to take the Aerobus for 5euros, just a regular one for 1.40) in 20 minutes. Therefore, it was easy to catch this bus in the morning when we left the hotel early in the morning. It is on the Placa Espanya, which is well supported by metro and bus lines to get to the city centre.

The hotel was very clean. We did not have breakfast there, but walked to the market every morning, so we could taste local food with the locals. It was just 5 minutes from the hotel. It is also easy to get to the football stadium from the hotel; there is a direct bus line to get there. We did not ask for the room with the panoramic windows, but we still got a room from which we had a wonderful view of the Museum of Catalunya and the waterfall. It was a very nice hotel for cheap and very good location to the centre.
